THE CHARITON COURIER.

C. P. VANDIVER, Ed and Prop-

KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

Entered at the post-office at Keytesville, Mo assecond-class mail matter

Friday, Nov. 15, 1895.

Go to Brill for groceries, glassware, queensware, tinware, candies, cigars and tobacco.

constantly kept for sale at Beazley's Dr. J. T. Aldridge. brick-yard, Brunswick, Mo.

Keytesville has erected twice as many residences this year as any other town in Chariton couty.

The Triplett Herald offers to take potatoes on subscription at 20 cts and apples at 50 cts a bushel.

John Barnes is building a new livery stable at Triplett. John just can't stay out of the livery busi-bury when a restaurant or two doesn't change hands or go out of business every week.

Go to Hansman & Rick and call for their 1891 hand-made Bourbon. You will find it matured well, palatable and strictly pure.

Thursday, Nov. 28th, has been set a part by President Cleveland as a day of Thankegiving. Politically, Democrats will have very little to be thankful for this year.

As usual, the Courier was the only newspaper in Chariton county last week that published the county court proceedings in full. Comments are unnecessary.

Don't buy millinery until you have seen Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's large and well-selected stock, Keytesville, Mo. She is prepared to save you money on all purchases in her line.

What was formerly known as Job's lake, near Mendon, has been transformed into a valuable tract of farm. ing land by the hustling Laughlin brothers, who have thrown up a large levee around it.

When you want the pure article, try Kellogg's pure, handmade sour-mash whiskey.

The Citizen boasts that Mendon has three churches and no saloons. But Mendon has two drug stores, and we have heard of people who could sometimes get snake medicine at a drug store when such medicine was plentiful and snakes were real Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diplome.

We notice in last week's Salisbury Press-Spectator that A. C. Yocum has developed into a pugilist, having had a set-to on the streets with J. B. Dameron. Since Augustus Caesar has begun to develop his muscle on other men's exteriors, we hasten to retract anything of an unpleasant nature we may have ever said or ever thought of this king of "Pope."

If you want a good Heating Stove, Vaughan will trade you one for corn. Call at his store and get particulars.

few years ago, was asked to sub- brother-in-law, Arthur Walker, of to return. scribe for the COURIER, declined, giving as a reason that "there were too confounded many papers in this county and becouldn't take 'em all." established the 9th or 10th paper in this county, and is now boring people almost to death to subscribe for his journal. He sings has been granted letters of adminquite a different tune from what istration on the estate of his grand- Judge Phillips' court at Kansas City buggies to reduce my large and Rev. John Holland, of Fayette, the Quick sales and small county's buxom bull-frog journalist, Brunswick, on Punday, Nov. 3rd, in Aug., 1894. Cazzell's fine and trimof the Keytesville Signal.

While stopping at the house of our friend, James H. Spence, in the Forks of Chariton last Sunday morning we were susprised to see two box elder trees with the second crep of leaves on them that were perfectly green and nearly half grown.

"Grandma" Wilson and J. B. Cooper are both recovering from their recent severe attacks of pneumonia. Notwithstanding Mis. Wilson is 77 and Mr. Cooper 60 years of age and both had pneumonia in both lungs, their cases have been A splendid quality of brick are skillfully and successfully treated by > F. M. De Jarnette, the boss pecan man, of near Dalton, was in Keytesville last Tuesday disposing of some of his home-grown pecans at $2 a gauger and storekeeperata distillery bushel. Mr. De Jarnette now has at Edgerton, Platt county, returned 1.000 bearing pecans trees on his to his duties last Tuesday morning fine farm, and from which he gather- after spending a few days very pleased nearly 300 bushels of nuts this antly with relatives and old friends

Lewis Ewing, col., better known as "Sindy," was shot in the knee cap by Constable Sam'i Huff at Dalton last walked out into his barn lot and Sanday. John Barleycorn is said to have been at the bottom of the trouble. Ewing is the negro who was tried at the last July term of the Salisbury circuit court on a charge of having burglarized "Uncle" Lewis Grotjan's trousers pockets of several dollars, near Dalton, but the accused was acquitted of the charge by the jury that tried him. "Sindy" has been arrested at different times on divers and sundry other charges, but has always managed to run the gauntlet of the offenses of which he was accused. No arrests have yet followed in the trail of the shooting of last Sunday.

> Mr. S. P. Ewing, who is the efficient in and near Kaytesville.

Thankfully Received.

We acknowledge the receipt, by express, prepaid, of a copy of the Progressive Supplemental dictionary, by Rev. Samuel Fallows, A. M., D. D. Our good friend, Mr. John Comstock, of Peoria, Ills., is the generous donor, to whom we made our bow with many thanks. We have given the book a hasty examination, and found in it several words whose definitions we were anxious to know, but which we could not find in Webster's Unabridged dictionary. It is a valuable work, and one which we prize very highly.

Miss Ollie Shoot, of Brunswick, returned bome Thursday last, after a pleasant visit to the family of W. C. Swain, four miles northwest of Keytesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Brooks, of near Chraneville, visited Harry Shoot and family, of Brunswick, last Saturday and Sunday.

If You Want Anything

in the line of taple and Fancy Groceries, Etc.

Canned Goods, Raisins, Maple Syrup, Dried Fruits, Tropical Fruits, etc.,

Don't Forget That

HAVE THE BEST LINE

In Keytesville, Mo.

WE sell for CASH and will give you better bargains than ANY Grocer in town. Come and see.

Chase & Sanborn's Celebrated Coffee. Best made. Three Lbs for $1 Bear Rio Roasted Coffee, 4 lbs for $1.

AGEE BROS

Keytesville, Mo.

SALFI

I have a number of thoroughbred Jersey Red hogs for sale. These hogs are known to be the best breed of hogs in existence. For further particulars, call on me at my farm, two miles west of Shannondale, or address me at Shannondale post-office.

L. C. CLOYD.

Proprietor Rosedale Stock Farm.

FARM FOR SALE.

Situated on Brunswick and Mendon road, four miles south of Mendon, north and west of Newcomer 1 1-2 miles, and containing 160 acres, well fenced, a good dwelling, barn 44x30 feet, plenty of water, three apple orchards, two bearing and the other young Ben Davis, peaches and small fruits in abundance; five acres in tember; bodock posts, ample supply. This is one of the best farms in Mendon township. If you want to buy, come and see for yourself and get a rare bargain Terms easy J. O. MYERS.

In his annual report, Gen. Miles, commanding the armies of the U. S. recommends the strengthening of our coast defenses. He states their condition is such as to require decided and immediate action their improvement. He says it is possible for any naval power to blockade every important port within 90 days. The entire gulf coast and all the to Philadelphia are entirely without modern guns, and none of those batteries could stop a single first-class warehip, much less a fleet.

Rev. Lewis E. Parker and wife, of Shelby county, arrived in Keytesville last Monday. Rev. Parker is assisting Rev. Neal in a protracted meeting at Centenary, while Mrs. Parker is the guest of Mrs. Neal at Mrs. Mann's

J. W. Cazzell, jr., pleaded guilty in large reductions on carriages and former at Asbury Chapel, assisted by Cannot be beaten.

C. B. Crawley spent Monday in Cr. Kansas City on legal business.

FIRST-CLASS FURNITURE

I have no bankrupt stock to offer you this week, next week, nor any other week, as I do not handle that class of goods. My entire stock is just out of the factory--new. nice and clean, and will be sold at prices which I defy competition to meet. I can save you from 10 to 30 per cent. on the same grade of goods. I pay spot cash and get the discount, which enables me to undersell any competitor that cities of the Atlantic coast northward does not discount his bills. I have no division to make and my rents are light, so you see I can save you money, day or night.

My undertaker's stock is complete in every line. I carry from the cheapest coffin to the finest metallic casket and can give Reve. Shilling and Neal are each you just what you holding protracted meetings, the want, at prices that profits is my motto henceforth and forev-

J. P. MOORE, Keytesville, Mo.

Don't Read

Dime Novels.

Better Read this Advertisement Instead.

Above us stands no competing stock, below us lie no competing prices. Fresh arrivals of Fine Goods and plenty of them for Fall and Winter wear. More new styles, handsome selections and choice novelties than ever before. Such fine goods you never saw sold so low. We float the banner of supremacy over our unequaled stock of Men's Suits, 30 and Up.

- Underwear, 5oc Suit and Up. Duck Coats, $1 and Up.
- Boots, $1.25 and Up.
- Gloves and Mits, 25c and Up.
- Hats, 49c and Up.
- Suspenders, 15c and Up.

In Neckwear We Defy Competition.

Men's Caps, 25c and Up.

- Work Shirts, 25c Each.
- Cotton Flannel Drawers, 25c Pair. Children's Suits, 75c and Up.
 - Overcoats, $1.25 and Up.

Boys' Waists, 25c Each.

Boys' and Children's Caps, 25c and Up.

In M n's, Boys' and Children's Overcoats We Lead. Call and Get Pric s. We Can and Will Save You Money.

> An unequaled assortment of the newest styles and novelties in Neckwear. See them and you want them. Price them and you buy them. Economy, comfort and satisfaction goes with every purchase.

> > INSPECT US. --- TRY US.

Globe Mercantile Co.

THE LEADING CLOTHIERS,

KEYTESVLLE,

MISSOURI.

Mrs. M. A. Ward is visiting relatives in Quincy, Ill.

Bring in that wood you promised us on subscription. We need it.

A resident dentist, who would attend strictly to business, could do well in Keyteaville.

A Chariton county man, who, a town, orders the Counter sent to his Brunswick has $1,353 delinquent poll-tax, which indicates that the That same man has since embarked tax collector of that sturdy old burg in the newspaper business, having doesn't carry a sharp stick with which to prod delinquents.

M. A. Kuappenberger, of Brunewick, he did when we asked him to sub- father, the late Elder James R. Ross, one day last week to selling beer at complete stock before the winter latter at Centenary, assisted by Rev. scribe for the Course in 1886. Such who died at the home of his son-in- a picnic at Richardson school-house, season begins. For a bargain come Lewis Parker, of Shelby county. are the inconsistencies of Chariton law, Mr. John Knappenberger, in in Missouri township, this county, in and see me.

The Knights of Pythias lodge here made arrangements at their meeting last Friday night for a sumptuous supper on the night of Thanksgiving, Thursday, Nov. 28th.

It is said that if you wish to rid your house of rate and mice, sprinkle red pepper on the floor just at the holes. The rat comes out, steps on Wm. Cooley, of two miles east of the pepper, cleans his feet with his tongue and leaves your house never mings amounted to $225.

> When L. O. White came to Hale, the CHARITON COURIER seemed particularly solicitous in his behalf on the strength of his desirability as a young bachelor. We are pleased to inform the Courier that we can report progress .- Hale City Times.

Theo. Hurst, a former Wabash freight conductor, but more recently engaged in the grocery business at Brunswick, has lately returned, with his wife, from a visit to relatives at Washington, N. C., and has decided to embark in the lumber business there in the near future.

Mrs. Rufus Emerson, nee Miss Mary Bennett, of near Snapp, presented her liege lord with a fine daughter last Sunday morning. Mother and babe are doing nicely, but the happy sire will persist in standing on his head and cutting various other capers. The Courier presents its compliments to little Miss Bennett.

THIRTY DAYS.

For thirty days I will give very

E. E. WARD. Brookfield, Mo.